Postdoctoral positions at
Instituto de Matemática e Estatística,
Universidade de São Paulo, Brazil

The doctoral programs in Mathematics (Pure or Applied) and Statistics (Statistics and Probability), of the Institute of Mathematics and Statistics, University of São Paulo has five postdoctoral positions to start immediately. We are looking for candidates with strong and proven research potential. The monthly stipend is R$ 4,100.00 (after taxes) for one year, renewable for equal periods for up to five years. It also has an aid for participation in conferences in the amount of up to R$ 12,000.00 per year. The post-doctoral research fellows will be invited to contribute to the teaching load, according to the needs of the graduate program, in no more than one course per semester.

Those interested must send the following documents by email to celi@ime.usp.br

• Curriculum Vitae.
• Research project.
• Names and email addresses of two or three researchers who may, if requested, send letters of reference.

Accepted applications may start between November 1st, 2013 and April 1st, 2014.

Closing date: 25 October 2013