Paul Erdős,

our friend and teacher, a giant in mathematics, passed away on the twentieth of September, 1996 in Warsaw, Poland. He had a double heart attack, and died in a hospital a few hours later.

A memorial for Paul Erdős will take place at 11:00am on Friday, October 18, in Budapest, in the Kerepesi Cemetery, the National Cemetery of Hungary. His ashes will be placed in his parents' grave, in the Jewish Cemetery in Rákoskeresztúr.

On Saturday, October 19, a scientific meeting will be organized devoted to Paul Erdos and his mathematics.
